REND LAKE COLLEGE ASSETS VERIFICATION
2027-28

The information provided on this form will be used to verify or to include your assets, your spouse's assets (if you are married), and your parents' assets (if you are a dependent student) on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If you are a dependent student, one parent must sign this form. Your application for financial aid is considered incomplete until this document is received. If there are differences between your reported FAFSA information and this document, Rend Lake College will make corrections to your FAFSA to resolve the conflicting information.

Asset Information

The information you report on this document should not be determined as of today. Amounts should be reported as of the day you signed and submitted the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If you were determined to be a dependent student when you completed the FAFSA, then your parent(s) must include their assets as well. You cannot leave a space blank. If an answer is zero dollars ($0), then you must enter "0" in the box below.

Questions	Student (and Spouse) Amount	Parent Amount (if dependent)
What was your total balance of cash, savings, and checking?	$	$
What was the net worth of your investments including real estate? Do not include the family home you or your parents live in. Net worth means the market value minus any debt. Investments include rental property, trust, money market, or mutual funds, CD's, stocks, other securities, 529 savings plans, etc.	$	$
What was the net worth of your businesses and investment farms? Do not include the family farm that you or your parents live on. Business and investment farm value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, inventory, etc. Business and investment farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used as collateral. Do not include a small business with 100 or fewer full-time employees.	$	$
